

Scenario-Based Executive Level Training (S-BELT)

Host Agency: Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office

Class: S-BELT (Scenario-Based Executive Level Training)

Date: February 16-17, 2010

Time: 8am to 5pm

Where: Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office Training Division (Classroom #2)
1409 North Falkenburg Road, Tampa, FL 33619

What is this training about? This course is created to expand and sustain homeland security leadership across the country. Developed by the Western Community Policing Institute and the Virginia Center for Policing Innovation, the course is designed to be challenge and scenario-based, requiring active participation and problem-solving. Participants, as leaders of their communities, will learn about leadership theories and traits that will assist them in planning and preparing for a National or domestic all hazards catastrophic event. This course will use historical figures and a pandemic influenza case study to examine and discuss how leaders, at critical times, can do the right thing, at the right time, in the right way, and for the right reasons.

The course consists of topics including: Carrying Out the Homeland Security Mission: Defining and Understanding Leadership and Management Roles; Successfully Integrating and Synchronizing the Homeland Security Mission through Leadership: Situational Leadership; Homeland Security Executive leadership Skills: Primal Leadership and Emotional Intelligence (EI); Comprehensive Application of Homeland Security Strategies: Transformational Leadership; and, using case studies to assess leadership characteristics.

Who should attend? The target audiences for this program are executive leaders representing a broad spectrum of public and private organizations that have official responsibility in implementing a capabilities-based approach to preparedness during a time of a community crisis. This would include representatives from any of the following disciplines and any other executives who have direct involvement in emergency management operations:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| -- Law enforcement | -- Emergency medical services |
| -- Fire service | -- Communications |
| -- Public works & public utilities | -- Government administration |
| -- Public safety | -- Health care & Private sector executives |
| -- Education | -- Emergency Managers |

Cost: This no-cost training is presented by Western Oregon University and is supported by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

Local Contact: Deputy Andrew Baxter, Training Division, Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office. Phone: 813-627-1016 or email: abaxter@hcsotampa.fl.us. Or Sheila Gunderman, Virginia Center for Policing Innovation. Phone: 804-644-0617 or email: sgunderman@vcpionline.org.

Scenario-Based Executive Level Training (S-BELT)

Registration Form

Scenario-Based Executive Level Training
Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office (Tampa, FL)
February 16-17, 2010

Pre-Registration is required. Classes are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Participants are encouraged to attend with a team of individuals from their agency; a registration form is required for each person. (Note: Special attention will be placed on training those leaders with limited access, including time and financial constraints, to homeland security leadership training.)

Name_____

Job Title_____

Address_____

Telephone_____ Email _____

Representing_____

Community / City / Business / Agency

Please mail or fax to:

Western Community Policing Institute
345 N. Monmouth Avenue
Monmouth, OR 97361
503-751-4001 / Fax: 503-751-4009

Or register on-line at: www.westernrcpi.com

For More Information Call:

Scott Tighe (503) 751-4003 or email tighes@wou.edu.

WCPI: The Western Community Policing Institute (WCPI), located on the campus of Western Oregon University (WOU) is a national partnership of community, law enforcement, and public agencies focused on improving the interaction between communities, law enforcement and local government utilizing the principles of community oriented policing to prevent crime and improve livability and preparedness.

VCPI: The Virginia Center for Policing Innovation (VCPI), a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization located in Richmond, Virginia, enhances and promotes public safety at all levels of the local, state and national community by providing unparalleled training and services for public safety professionals and the communities they serve.